UNTIL RECEIPT OF WRITTEN NOTIFICATION OF APPROVAL, NO SCHOOL SHALL SCHEDULE A CLASS WITH YOU AS THE INSTRUCTOR.

Instructions for "Yes" Answers on Section 12 of the Application for Prelicense Instructor Certification

- A. The following documents must be provided at the time you apply for certification. Applications will not be considered without this material.

Question a1)

If you have applied for, been granted, or held a real estate license in Hawaii or any other jurisdiction, list the jurisdiction, license type, and license number in the space provided. Attach a separate page if more space is required.

Questions a2, a3, a4, and a5)

These questions refer to complaints, charges of unlicensed activity, or pending disciplinary actions for any profession, occupation, or license, both real estate and those other than real estate. If your answer is "yes" to one or more of these questions, read paragraph B below, and you must submit the following:

- i. A statement by you explaining the circumstances;
- ii. Copies of any documents from the agency, including final orders, petitions, findings of fact and conclusions of law, and any other relevant documents;
- iii. A resume of any employment, business activities, and education since the date of the action; and,
- iv. You may also include statements from employers, business associates, clients, and others who can attest to your reputation for or record of competency, honesty, truthfulness, financial integrity, and fair dealing.

Question b)

If your application indicates a criminal conviction, read paragraph B below, and you must submit the following:

- i. A statement by you explaining the circumstances leading to the conviction and detailing all activities since the conviction, including employment and business involvements. Include job title, period of employment, employer's name, description of duties, training attended, and educational courses attended;
- ii. A copy of the court order, verdict, and terms of sentence;
- iii. If applicable, a copy of the terms of probation and/or parole and a statement from your probation or parole officer as to your reputation for or record of competency, honesty, truthfulness, financial integrity, and fair dealing; and,
- iv. Statements from employers, business associates, clients, and others who can attest to your business dealings since the conviction, including a statement as to your reputation for or record of competency, honesty, truthfulness, financial integrity, and fair dealing.

Question c)

If you have any pending lawsuits, unpaid judgments, outstanding tax obligation, or any other type of involuntary liens against you, read paragraph B below, and you must submit the following:

- i. A statement by you explaining the circumstances and current status, and if no payment of payment arrangement has been made, the reason;
- ii. A resume of employment and business activities; and,
- iii. Copies of the court complaint, judgment, documentation of payment arrangements, lien documents, records of any payments, and other relevant documents.

- B. If your answer to questions a2), a3), a4), a5), b), or c) is "yes", your application will be reviewed at a monthly Real Estate Commission meeting if you have provided all applicable information and documents as described above. The Commission will not review incomplete applications. If you wish to present oral testimony at the meeting, submit a written request with your application. A courtesy notice with information on the date, time, and location of the meeting will be sent to you.

STATEMENT OF ETHICAL TEACHING PRACTICES

Prelicensing Education Instructor

I, _____, as a prelicensing education instructor for _____, do hereby promise, attest to, and affirm that I shall adhere to the highest standards of ethical practices in the performance of my instructional duties including but not limited to:

1. Teaching only course subjects, the command knowledge of which I have acquired either by training, experience or education or by combinations thereof;
2. Taking all reasonable steps to update the prelicensing education course materials and information;
3. Giving out, to the best of my knowledge and belief, current and accurate course information and materials;
4. Conducting fair and reasonable discussions, presenting alternative viewpoints, and identifying clearly an instructor's opinion of any controversial course issues within the time allotted to the topic;
5. Advising students that each should research and update any course information and materials prior to using the course information and materials in the practice of real estate;
6. Taking reasonable steps to prevent the unlicensed, unauthorized and unintended practice of any licensed profession, for example, the unlicensed practice of giving legal, accounting, or tax advise;
7. Using reasonable efforts to keep current with the state of the art teaching techniques and skills as it relates to the teaching of prelicensing education to adult learners;
8. Informing students prior to the start of class what the students can expect to learn from the course;
9. Taking reasonable steps to evaluate whether indeed the students have learned what I taught;
10. Refraining from limiting course instructions to exclusively train students to pass the licensing exam;
11. Obtaining appropriate consents and permissions before using copyrighted or patented instructional materials, products or presentations;
12. Taking reasonable steps to maintain appropriate classroom decorum and language conducive to academic learning, inquiry and research;

13. Refraining from active solicitation and advertising for, during any scheduled prelicensing education class, other businesses and products which the instructor owns or has any direct or indirect interest in; "active solicitation and advertising for" excludes a business, professional or product presentation to students listing the instructor's expertise, work experience, publications, and affiliations as part of an introductory resume;
14. Performing diligently all other duties and responsibilities required of a prelicensing education instructor as set forth in Hawaii Revised Statutes, Chapter 467 and Commission rules embodied in Hawaii Administrative Rules, Chapter 99, "Real Estate Brokers and Salespersons."

As a prelicensing education instructor, I acknowledge that failure to conform to the standards, duties and responsibilities enumerated and referred to above may be grounds for loss of certification as an instructor.

As the administrator of the prelicensing education school named above, I acknowledge and agree that my omission of, intentional or negligent conduct and acts which aid and abet the prelicensing education instructor signing below to perform otherwise as the instructor has promised, attested to and affirm, and adhere to but not limited to herein, may be grounds for loss of the prelicensing real estate school's registration.

CONSENT

The Real Estate Commission may use the following methods to evaluate the prelicense education / continuing education programs and to monitor compliance with prelicense education / continuing education rules.

1. Evaluations. The Commission may require that participant evaluation forms, provided by the Commission, be distributed to participants for purposes of evaluating the school / provider, instructor, and course. Schools / Providers will be responsible for obtaining, distributing, collecting, and returning the forms.
2. Drop-In Monitoring. Representatives of the Commission may attend courses on a drop-in basis. They will not register and no fees or reimbursements will be involved.
3. Investigative Monitoring. Representatives of the Commission may attend courses as a regular participant for the purpose of determining if the courses are being presented under statute, regulation, and Commission requirements. These representatives will not identify themselves as Commission representatives and will pay the required fees.
4. The Commission may, from time to time, request information regarding course offerings, attendance, examinations, and record keeping.

The undersigned acknowledges receipt and understanding of the procedures outlined above which relate to all approved prelicense education / continuing education course offerings.

I consent to inspection or monitoring by representatives of the Real Estate Commission. I agree to report any material changes, including addition of or substitution of instructors in the information submitted at least 30 days prior to proposed use. I agree to retain complete records for at least three years from the date of each course offering.
